Re: United States v. Richard D. Reid, Criminal Action No. 06-08-SLR

Dear Chief Judge Robinson:

With respect to the "Motion to Suppress Out-of-Court Identification and to Preclude Identification at Trial" filed by the defendant on February 2, 2007, the Government has determined that it will not call John Bristol – the witness whose testimony is at issue – as a witness at trial, and will not seek to introduce through any other witness evidence regarding any identification of the defendant made by Mr. Bristol. Accordingly, the Government respectfully requests that the Court deny the defendant's motion as moot.

Respectfully submitted,

COLM F. CONNOLLY
United States Attorney
